Chorlton CLT is run by a group of volunteer board directors, elected each year by its membership. In turn the board oversees a number of specific sub-committees that are composed of individuals from the local community that participate on a voluntary basis. The board will finalise the sub-committees based on interest from volunteers but we are looking for specific committees on: Communications & outreach, finance & fundraising and planning & development, environment & sustainability.

Mark only one oval.

Board nomination form

Directors must be aware of their duties and responsibilities in law. In order to be eligible to serve on the Board, a person must:

- be 18yrs or over; and
- be able to demonstrate that they have the relevant experience, skills and qualifications necessary to serve on the Board; and
- not be disqualified from holding office as a director, a trustee of a charity, subject to a bankruptcy order made against them, or in the written opinion of a registered medical practitioner that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months.

Like any effective board or committee, the Board should be made up of individuals with a diverse range of skills and experience that complement each other. Collectively the Board aims to reflect the interests and diversity of the local community.
